

Special Circular 6: Invoices Issued to Buyers (Trade Description Ordinance)

Exhibitors are reminded that each invoice issued must clearly indicate the exhibitor's full name and address as well as a detailed description of goods sold, including but not limited to the date of purchase, quantity, price and/or any other written particulars as required under the laws of Hong Kong, in order to comply with the law and avoid misunderstandings or complaints.

Further, exhibitors must ensure that all trade descriptions to be applied to the goods supplied or offered to supply are accurate, and that it must not omit, hide or provide material information in a manner that is unclear, unintelligible, ambiguous or untimely. Exhibitors who provide, supply or offer to supply goods with a false trade description commit a criminal offence in contravention of the Trade Descriptions Ordinance, Chapter 362, Laws of Hong Kong. If an exhibitor is found to be in breach of the said Ordinance or any of its eight pieces of subsidiary legislation, the Organiser shall have the right to permanently terminate the exhibitor's right to exhibit in the exhibition and ban the exhibitor from all future events held by the Organiser.
